EXPERIENCE

Ms. Condon joined Pollart Miller LLC in 2014. She represents employers, insurance carriers and third-party administrators in defending claims from the initial litigation stages of discovery and depositions, through hearing and settlement, when appropriate.

After graduating from law school in 2008, Ms. Condon worked for the New York firm Stewart, Greenblatt, Manning and Baez until joining the Legal Aid Society of Suffolk County New York in 2009.

Her practice included extensive motion and jury trial experience. She obtained successful outcomes through a combination of zealous advocacy and when appropriate, effective plea bargaining.

In 2011, Ms. Condon returned to Stewart, Greenblatt, Manning and Baez. In addition to litigating claims, she also drafted briefs to be argued before the Supreme Court of the State of New York Appellate Division: Third Department and achieved favorable outcomes on behalf of her clients.

Her knowledge, experience and demeanor with opposing counsel has resulted in substantial savings and reduced legal exposure for our clients. Ms. Condon excels at all aspects of litigation, including motion practice and appeals. She recently argued a case before the Colorado Court of Appeals, producing a procedural impact to benefit all employers and insurance carriers in the future.
