EXPERIENCE

Mr. Miller is one of the founding members of Pollart Miller with 25 years of litigation experience in the states of Colorado, Utah and Minnesota. Mr. Miller has defended numerous Fortune 100 as well as small companies in a wide variety of litigation matters including liability insurance claims, complex commercial claims, labor and employment disputes, workers' compensation claims, and an extensive diversification of civil claims. Mr. Miller defends employers and insurance companies before federal and state courts, and also before administrative agencies in Colorado and Utah.

Mr. Miller's background includes joining a large defense oriented law firm with 60 plus lawyers in Minneapolis, Minnesota immediately after graduating cum laude from a top 20 law school. Mr. Miller worked for this large defense firm for nearly 7 years where he received extensive experience handling complex and large litigation matters. After he moved to Colorado in 2000, he was a founding member of Pollart Miller. Mr. Miller continues to specialize in all types of insurance defense, workers' compensation, employment law as well as a variety of other civil matters.

Mr. Miller's history of defending complex commercial, employment, civil and labor law claims has given him the type of experience necessary to provide well-rounded advice and proper guidance to employers and insurance carriers especially when handling workers' compensation claims. Mr. Miller's smart, aggressive, no-nonsense approach with a focus on appropriate legal fees and excellent client service has made him a favorite defense lawyer in the Colorado market.

SPEAKING ENGAGEMENTS

Mr. Miller is a frequent lecturer on a variety of insurance law topics and litigation. In the past, he has provided twice-a-year progressive training to claims professionals through a program at the University of Minnesota. He has been asked by multiple third party administrators to provide training to new hires, and presently continues to provide such training services to his clients. Mr. Miller has also presented at National Claims Conferences at the request of his Fortune 500 clients.
