EXPERIENCE

Ms. Grimes joined Pollart Miller LLC as an associate in 2012. After graduating from law school, she was selected as part of the Attorney General Honors' Program in the U.S. Department of Justice. She spent two years with the Executive Office of Immigration Review as an Attorney Advisor, where she gained extensive experience with immigration, criminal, and procedural matters before a federal administrative body.

Since joining Pollart Miller, Ms. Grimes has focused her practice on civil litigation, employment law, and workers' compensation defense. She represents insureds, employers, and insurance carriers before state courts and administrative agencies, both at the trial court and appellate levels. Ms. Grimes has represented clients in all phases of litigation and mediation through appeal; she has argued before the Colorado Court of Appeals and has briefed cases to the Colorado Court of Appeals and Supreme Court.
